THE WELCOME AT ST. LOUIS

President Warmly Received at First Stop on River Trip—Drenched in Downpour of Rain.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2.—President Roosevelt, in a speech here today, declared it the nation's duty to restore the Mississippi river to its proper place as a great artery of commerce, and termed the proposed fourteen-foot channel from the lakes to the Gulf a "National task."

He warned against plans which might "entail reckless extravagance or be tainted with robbery," but urged a liberal waterway policy.

The president's address was not diminished by the fact that he was drenched by a sudden downpour of rain while en route to the Jai Alai building, where his speech was delivered.

A tremendous ovation was accorded the national executive when the steamer Mississippi entered St. Louis harbor to make the first stop on the voyage from Keokuk, Ia., to Memphis, Tenn., where President Roosevelt will attend the convention of the Deep Waterways Association on Friday. Thousands of persons had gathered on the levees to witness the president's arrival and were held in check by corare incorporated in one state and operate in another. He instanced especially his experience in getting the Southern Pacific Railroad to repair a breach in the Colorado river.

"That disaster occurred in California," he said, "but do you suppose I found it possible to deal with the railroad there? No. The railroad is a New Jersey corporation, and I had to deal with it as such."

He contended that the constitution must be interpreted to fit modern-day conditions, and not conditions that existed when it was adopted.

"It must be construed as an instrument of life and not a symbol of death," he said epigrammatically. "The judges of the courts should always stand against popular clamor, but they should also recognize the necessity of a general conservation of the public welfare under present conditions," he asserted. He contended that in taking this position he was fighting the future for the rich, for if the rich commit excesses now they in-dons of police and companies of soldiers from Jefferson Barracks. Amid a clamor of shrieking whistles, clanging bells and cheers from the masses assembled, the president landed and was greeted by fifteen governors from states bordering the Mississippi river, members of congress and officials representing the city of St. Louis.

Through a sudden heavy downpour of rain, the president, standing in an open carriage and bowing to the multitudes, was driven to the building where he delivered his speech.

Control of Corporations.

The president emphasized his views on the necessity for central control of interstate corporations, and he frequently departed from his manuscript to elaborate and make clear his views on that point. His contention was that there must be some sovereign that can control these institutions, especially the railroads.

He spoke at length of the difficulty in reaching the corporations which vite excesses against themselves and their posterity.

Speaking of the improvement of the Mississippi river, he warned the advocates of that interest against insufficiently considered local improvements. The whole waterways system must be treated as a whole and the enterprise must not be tainted either with folly or dishonesty.

President Roosevelt was introduced by Gov. Folk of Missouri in a brief speech.

As the president advanced to speak the audience arose cheering and waving flags.

Business Men's League Guest.

At the conclusion of the president's address he and the party of escorts hurried to waiting carriages, and were taken at a gallop to the Jefferson hotel, where they were the guests of the St. Louis Business Men's League at luncheon. Covers were laid for more than 400 guests. There were no set

STATEHOOD NEAR AT HAND.

Should no unforeseen obstruction arise in the much-vexed path of statehood, the forty-sixth star will be emblazoned on the nation's flag before the middle of November.

On October eighth Chief Justice Burford of the Oklahoma supreme court, Judge W. H. H. Clayton, senior judge of Indian Territory and Secretary Charles Filson of Oklahoma will meet at Guthrie as a returning board to canvass the returns from the vote on the constitution.

This work will be largely a formal one, as in all probability, the secretary and his official force will have done the actual work of computation as the returns have come in. Two days should be sufficient to make the canvass and prepare a proper certificate of the result, which will be immediately forwarded to President Roosevelt at Washington.

When the president still there, he would be expected to at once issue the proclamation making Oklahoma a state, and on receipt of announcement to this effect, Governor Haskell and the balance of the democratic state administration would immediately take the oath of office and assume their several duties.

Since the certificate of the returns can not reach Washington before the president starts south on his hunting trip, it is possible that statehood may be delayed, either until he returns to the capital, or until a messenger can carry to him the proclamation and secure his signature thereto.

Within not less than 15 days nor more than 30 days after the governor assumes his duties, he is required by the constitution to issue a proclamation convening the state legislature. This probably will occur somewhere between the first and the fifteenth of November.

The legislature will convene in Guthrie, the temporary capital, and will frame a complete code of laws in keeping with, and carrying out the provisions of the constitution. Owing to the enormous amount of work they will have to do, it is generally believed that the first session of the legislature will last fully six months.

A TROPHY OF THE DOLLAR.

From the Oklahoman.

An Englishman referred to American slang as being "unconventional but deucedly expressive."

This expressiveness may be realized in the assertion that the dollar of today "looks like thirty cents" when its purchasing power is compared to that of the dollar of a few years ago.

It was a bit interesting to read recently an editorial published in an Oklahoma daily newspaper of republican politics commending the publisher of a republican weekly newspaper at Hobart, Okla., because he had the good sense to increase the price of his publication from $1 to $1.50 per year, reciting that a trust had raised the price of print paper to such a point that there was no longer profit in publishing a weekly newspaper at the annual subscription price of one dollar.

The comment and subject matter indicated that at least two republican brethren have discovered that the dollar of our fathers is shrinking in these latter days of strenuous existence under the republican policy of a protective tariff that is a tax upon the people and of grinding trusts and combinations fostered by that system that is now making the rich richer and the poor poorer at an accelerated rate that is making the most obtuse citizen arise and take notice.

The individual who chances to belong to that class rated as "common people" is also discovering that his opportunities, like the value of the dollar, are depreciating day by day. Sung to sleep years ago with that seductive lullaby, "Protect our Infant Industries," he is now awakening to discover that with oceans of prosperity all around him, there is scarcely a drop of it for him to drink.

Threatens Writ of Injunction.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 2.—Chairman Hunter of the republican state committee, who was here yesterday, is authority for the statement that at least one in junction proceeding would be brought against the state board when it sits here next week to canvass the vote cast Sept. 17. Mr. Hunter would not give the origin of the suit or state what was intended to be proved.

He departed last night for Memphis to greet the president on his southern trip. He announced that all abstracts of state constitutional and prohibition votes cast in the recent election are in possession of Secretary Wilson and will be officially rendered Oct. 8.

The abundant down pour this afternoon rained out a lot of the news expected for publication.

"Jake" Hamon advises Republicans to be fair, and, if not fair, at least winsome.

The "I-told-you-he-would-sign-it" boys are thicker than mosquitoes in the Deep Fork bottoms.

"I'll bet all I've got left, a 1-eyed mule" said a peevish republican, "that the democrats will fail to enact a mandatory primary law in the first legislature."

A party of Stillwater fishermen caught 500 pounds of fish in the Arkansas river twenty-four miles north of Stillwater. In the catch was a 70-pound catfish.

Fred C. Tracy of Beaver has sued J. S. Fischer, editor of the Beaver Journal, for criminal libel. Tracy says that Fischer will have gnostalgia (look in the dictionary) before he gets through with him.

C. L. Holland of Tulsa, democratic member of the state legislature, is a candidate for speaker of the house. His photograph resembles the late Temple Houston, when Houston was dressed in his fighting clothes.

C. N. Haskell, governor-elect, and who, next to the constitution, is declared by "Alfalfa Bill" Murray to be what the people voted for, wrote a 4-column editorial for his Muskogee New-State Tribune last week, in which he says: "The elections have demonstrated that an overwhelming majority of the people of the new state are conscientious, honest and moral, and demand that their government shall be of the same character." There are a few woodenheads who have been figuring that the demonstration was due to an awful democratic majority in the new state.

Norman Transcript (rep.): As far as Transcript is concerned, it hopes the president can see his way clear to approve the constitution and issue his proclamation admitting the state. Let the tail go with the hide. The people have decided, by a very decisive majority that they can live under the constitution, and certainly if they can the Transcript can. For the last year or more the territory has been in the throes of a political contest that has demoralized business and retarded the growth and prosperity of the country and we certainly do not want to go through the like again if there is any honorable way of avoiding it.

Albert Sidney Lee, whoever he may be, wrote from Guthrie a poem for the Oklahoman, "The Last Days of the Carpet Baggers." Here are a few of his tuncful thinks from the Cimarron blackjacks:

For the imported carpet bagger, so stern and bold,

Had held them fast with a deathlike hold,

Until every plan that could be laid

Was watched by them and torn in twain.

But, alas! the God of liberty, the God of the free,

Planted a seed that grew the statehood tree

That has been watered and nurtured by an anxious throng

Of liberty loving people who have watched so long

To see it grow from a tiny sprout

And reach the magnitude where its limbs would spread out

And cover all the fair land with its flower tinted aroma.

Known as the territories of Indian and Oklahoma.

BIG SHOW COMING.

Ada, Wednesday, Oct. 16th—It Will Pay You to Wait for the Only Big Railroad Show Coming This Year.

It is true that the news of a circus coming to town is read and heard with more or less interest by everybody, and when its coming is preceded by reliable information that it is high class, clean, and that its management fulfills every published promise made the public, then that interest is increased. The newspapers all over the state where the Gollmar Bros. Greatest of American shows have exhibited already this season speak in the highest terms of the establishment, and say that without question their circus, museum, menagerie and hippodrome is the greatest amusement combination in the country today. In the menagerie they show a monster $20,000 black African hippopotamus, a monster herd of trained elephants, and 50 dens of rare wild animals. The circus performance they give comprises 100 original, novel and picturesque feature acts; the hippodrome shows 200 fine blooded horses and nearly 200 gentlemen and lady actors, and their free street parade is a veritable pageant of gold, glory and glitter. They have three great bands, a $5000 32 pipe callopie, said to be the largest in the world, and give their exhibitions under a spread of water proof canvas which covers acres of ground. The Greatest of American shows exhibit here Oct. 16th. Two performances daily; doors open 1 and 7 p. m. See the big free street parade at 10 a. m.

THAT VERY FOUL CONSPIRACY

Hunter and his Co-Conspirators are Playing Their Last Card Against Statehood—Hope to Delay Certification to President Until Congress Convenes.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 3.—Undaunted by the clamorous disapproval of the better element of republicans throughout the state; indifferent to the implied suggestion from Roosevelt that it is time to quit playing the baby; and seemingly oblivious to the fact that his actions are making him the laughing stock of both territories, Charley Hunter, former quarter master sergeant in Teddy's rough riders, who had charge of the chuck wagon ten miles in the rear at San Juan Hill, is still blatantly proclaiming that he will contest the recent election on the ground of gross frauds perpetrated by the democrats.

The animus behind these groundless charges of fraud and talk of contest is apparent to all conversant with the situation. Hunter is but the tool of the carpetbaggers and the corporations who still hope in some way to be able to defeat statehood. Their present plan is to delay the certifying to President Roosevelt of the result of the vote on the constitution until after congress is again in session. This accomplished the statehood assassins expect a republican majority in congress to repeal the enabling act before statehood can be proclaimed in order to prevent Oklahoma's seven democratic electoral votes from figuring in the selection of the next president.

As an inducement to the Oklahoma republicans, and those in the northern portion of Indian Territory to consent to this plan, they hold out the promise of another enabling act, immediately passed, granting statehood to Oklahoma Territory and what they consider the republican portion of Indian Territory. The democratic portions of Indian Territory would then be erected into a territory as a further bonanza for the carpetbaggers, and would be taken into the proposed state by piece meal, as the immigration of northern republicans and Texas and Arkansas niggers became sufficient to certainly overcome its democratic vote.

At the meeting of the republican statecommittee held in Oklahoma City this week, this plan was gone thoroughly over and discussed from every point. The few republicans present from the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations protested vigorously, but as the majority of those present at the meeting were federal office holders or representatives of predatory corporations like the coal trust of South McAlester, their protests were of no avail. The leading spirit in the conference was William T. Busby, the South McAlester coal baron, who was ably assisted by Henry P. Robbins, his plant and plausible hireling.

This is the real plan of the enablers of statehood. It was discussed seriously and soberly, just as honest men would discuss a legitimate business proposition. The people of both territories who have labored for years for single statehood should break away from party lines and face the condition as good citizens who are mindful of their rights.

NEW STATE NOTES.

From the Oklahoman.

An envious neighbor prints the following: "Humorous item—The lid is on at Enid now every Sunday."

El Reno is still unable to telegraph its baby. The last man called in didn't stay long enough to dust off the keys when he had felt the local atmosphere.

The people of Oklahoma hung up the statehood flag so high that even the republican grafters have concluded not to try to haul it down.—Ark. Ex-Rays.

The Darrow Press makes note of one of its citizens who has purchased a steam engine and plows, and will put in five hundred acres of wheat this fall.

The beet sugar industry is trying to gain a foothold in the new state, with the promise of transferring its headquarters from Colorado to Oklahoma City.—Southwestern Development News.

At Enid the brewery has already been transformed into a cold storage plant. Better and worthier uses will thus be found for the plants all over the new state and prosperity and manhood be enhanced.

A fourteen year old girl of Glencoe who eloped to Pawnee was headed off and taken home. Four more years of schooling won't hurt the young lady, because matrimony is a long school wit hno diploma at the end.

Bill Murray has tendered the president the use of his celebrated squirrel rifle on his Louisiana hunting expedition. Bill says it will kill a bear every time and can be adjusted to shoot a mile and a half in a circle.

Jerre Johnson, of Newkirk newspaper fame, declared that he would leave the country if the constitution carried, and some one has cruelly remarked that was the cause of such a big vote for the document over in that section.

The Waukomis Hornet says the cotton output of the United States this year in round dollars was more than the gold output of the world. We can't all have a gold mine, but we can all have a patch of cotton which is the next best thing.

Never judge a man by his clothing warns a rural exchange. The man with the ragged suit, slouch hat and worn-out shoes may be the editor of your local paper, while the man with the stylish suit and patent leather shoes may simply be one of his delinquent subscribers.

This is the way the Marble City Enterprise editor apologizes for his job: It is the person rather than the occupation that adds dignity to labor. There are those who can beautify the most menial occupation or service, and there are others who can degrade the most humble occupation.

W. P. Campbell, custodian of the state historical society, visited a few days this week with the Hornet family. Like all others that come from Oklahoma City he thinks that it is speeches, but the president responded to the toast of President James E. Smith of the league by expressing the wish that the ends of the league might be achieved. The "end of the league" just now means the securing of a fourteen-foot river channel.

The party was scheduled to leave the hotel at 2:30 o'clock but the president did not enter his carriage until after 3 o'clock.

Gov. Curry Delays Departure.

Arriving at the wharf it was found that Gov. Curry of New Mexico, who was to travel with the president, was not aboard the steamer Mississippi.

A search of half an hour revealed Gov. Curry on the steamer Alton. He was summoned by the president and the Mississippi cast off her moorings shortly after 4 o'clock, an hour behind schedule time. She was followed by the U. S. steamer Col. McKenzie carrying the members of the Inland Waterways Commission. The Alton, bearing the Governors of Fifteen states, the Tennessee, chartered for thirty-six visiting congressmen, sixteen other large steamboats and a host of small craft.

The president intended to go aboard the McKenzie tonight for a conference with the members of the Inland Waterways Commission. Tomorrow the president will deliver a speech at Cairo, Ill.

ARDMORE COLLEGE BURNS.

Young Lady Students and Teachers Have Narrow Escape—$30,000 Loss.

Ardmore, I. T., Oct. 3.—The main building of Hargrove College, the Methodist college in this city, was destroyed by fire at about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Seventy-five young lady students and ten lady teachers, who were rendered homeless barely escaped. The building, contents and all of the belongings of the occupants were destroyed.

Miss Cameron Boone, teacher of expression and voice, sustained serious injuries by falling down a flight of stairs in endeavoring to escape from the flames.

The building was valued at about $15,000 and was but partially insured. The contents, which consisted of room furnishings and school furniture, with four or five pianos was valued at about $15,000, on which there was practical no insurance.

The fire originated in the front part of the building on the fourth floor and the roof was ablaze before the alarm was sounded. The origin is supposed to have been from either a defective flue or bad wiring. The building had recently been repaired for the present session of school, which commenced about the middle of September. The boys' dormitory of the institution was destroyed by fire last spring and the board of directors had just completed arrangements for the construction of a new building.

Congressman-elect Charles D. Carter is a heavy loser by the fire, destroying a considerable quantity of family heirlooms. President Staples of the institution, who moved here from Hillsboro, Tex., is a heavy loser of books, furniture and personal belongings, including a new piano. In all probability the trustee will rebuild as soon as arrangements can be made.

The institution was organized about twelve years ago, and is the only educational institution in the new state that is under the control of the Methodist conference of Oklahoma. It was named for Bishop Hargrove of Georgia.

Fine Millinery Display.

(Not published sooner because it got lost in composing room.)

It was a scene of unusual beauty and gaiety at Mrs. Alexander's Millinery store Saturday, the occasion being her fall opening. The house was profusely decorated with flowers, both natural and artificial, and beautiful specimens of the season's millinery offerings were everywhere in evidence. Ladies of the town and country thronged the store for hours.

Mrs. Mary Smith and Miss Eula Kaiser were valuable assistants to Mrs. Alexander in exhibiting the stock and entertaining the visitors.

Saloon Men to Pacific Coast.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 3.—It develops today that many saloon men of Guthrie and other Oklahoma cities will "trek" to the Pacific coast towns and cities after state-wide prohibition becomes effective. Of the local saloon men the majority are going to Oregon. These include some of the wealthiest citizens of Guthrie.

City on Good Behavior.

The dullness in police court circles is almost funereal, compared with last week's docket, congested as it was with drunks and disorders. Most exemplary appears to be the town's conduct this week. Mayor Barton says, it looks as if the city must go into bankruptcy in its criminal business.

But cobwebs in the calabos are to be coveted by any city that has sense.

Farmers' Union in Session.

The Farmers' Union of Pontotoc county met in regular quarterly session this afternoon at 2 o'clock with considerable important business to transact. The attendance was good, considering this is the very busiest time of the year for farmers of this vicinity. A full account of the proceedings will appear in this paper later.

J. O. McMinn, the new editor of the Konawa Chief-Leader, was here on business today. A consolidation of the two papers of that town has been effected, whereby the Times ceases publication, and Mr. McMinn assumes management of the Chief-Leader.

Also I want to thank my many friends who so tenderly cared for me and looked after the welfare and comfort of my family. Such friends are very much appreciated.

Again, I wish to thank those who so kindly remembered me in a business way during my sickness, for I am sure they were treated with courtesy.

Again thanking all who assisted in any way or wished me well, I am sincerely yours,

STATEHOOD THWARTS LOVERS.

Several Divorce Weddings Postponed Because of No Final Court Adjudgment.

There were a goodly number of divorces granted at the recent term of U. S. court in Ada. It develops that at least five of the divorcees were in somewhat of a hurry. At least, that number have signified their desire for license to wed again right upon the heels of the court's adjournment Wednesday.

But complications arose from the fact that the court's adjournment was not a final adjournment for the term. For the benefit of lawyers and litigants in these days of transition from a territorial to a statehood status, Judge Dickerson did not adjourn court sine die, but adjourned till Oct. 14th, when he will be here again for a day and consider court questions not requiring a jury.

In the meantime many legal controversies, apparently decided already, might be reopened. Among those controversies, issues in divorce cases. So fresh divorcees are not safe in marrying until after Judge Dickerson visits Ada again, October 14.

This will work a seeming hardship on some of the love lorn; but they should consider that in most jurisdictions divorcees have to wait from three to six months after court finally adjourns before they may lawfully wed again.

The News sympathizes with those thwarted and distressed by this awkward situation. One couple had even gone so far today as to have all the blanks signed up before a young lady deputy in the U. S. clerk's office—had fully qualified themselves for matrimony—when the eagle-eyed chief, Al Constant, came in and threw a wet blanket over the nuptials by explaining that no decree of divorce was yet effective.

Those who love each other as hard as they ought to will be still in the notion two weeks hence when probably there will be naught to obstruct Cupid's plans.

About the Harris Hotel.

Sam Harris was here from Shawnee today looking after his property interests. He showed his faith in Ada in an early day by building the Harris hotel block. When asked who will take charge of this hotel as successor to E. E. Parnell, the present lessee who will remove to Sulphur, Mr. Harris said he did not know; that no definite arrangements have been made. It has been rumored that he would remove hither from Shawnee and run this popular hostelry himself, but Mr. Harris states he has no such intentions; that, on the contrary, he would prefer to sell the property.

One of Ada's New Merchants.

The Mitchell (Indiana) Commercial has this to say of Harry Chapple, who has removed to Ada to become one of our merchants:

"Harry Chapple closed out business Friday night, since which time he has been packing up such as he wanted to ship. He will send out a car and expects to have the car ready to send out today. We are sorry Harry is going away, for he has been in business here a long while. From small capital he had by hard labor and fair dealing grown into a nice business. We predict success for him in the west, for a young man of his hustle and business qualifications always win in a new country. He is a square young business man and we commend him to the people of Ada, I. T., where he is going to locate."

XX Century Club.

The Twentieth Century Club held its first meeting of the new club year with Mrs. Tom Hope on Tuesday.

Members responded to roll call with quotations from English authors.

Miss Jarrell favored the club with several instrumental pieces, and Mrs. Rives with a vocal solo.

Mrs. Hope delighted all with her president's address and with an extract from her diary of an "Imaginary Trip to England."

Three new members, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Tally and Miss Harrell signed the constitution.

After all business had been transacted we spent a delightful social hour with our hostess, who served dainty English refreshments.

Mrs. Furman will be hostess for the next regular meeting on Tuesday, the eighth of October.

GOVERNORS TALK THIRD TERM.

Executive Heads of Many States Render Their Opinion on the Idea.

Oregon for Bryan.
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2.—Governors today discussed the third term idea as follows:

Gov. Folk of Missouri believes there is a sentiment among the American people against the third term which will prevent the nomination of Roosevelt next year.

Governor-elect Haskell of Oklahoma said that in his state nothing has been heard of a third term.

Gov. Davidson of Wisconsin says Roosevelt would carry Wisconsin if he again becomes a candidate. He does not think a dangerous precedent would be established.

Gov. Burk of North Dakota thinks if anyone else will do the nomination should not be forced upon President Roosevelt.

"I am a Democrat," was the only comment Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana would make.

Governor-elect Noel of Mississippi said no republican would be more acceptable than Roosevelt, but in his state a republican president is not regarded as a necessity.

"I believe Roosevelt was sincere when he promised he would not again become a candidate," said Gov. Cummins of Iowa, "but a public man like Roosevelt has no right to shirk his duties. A larger proportion of the democrats are for Bryan, but nineteen out of every twenty citizens are for Roosevelt."

Gov. Curry of New Mexico, who was one of the Rough Riders, and has been regarded as a personal friend of the president, says Roosevelt does not want a third term.

If handsome Frank Frantz could do it he would deliver the new state of Oklahoma to the president on a platter. Unfortunately for that program, the Oklahoma republican machine is badly damaged after a scrimmage with one Haskell and others of his political tribe.

Gov. Sheldon of Nebraska says: "We are mainly sawing wood; we have endorsed Taft in a pleasant way and we have done the same for the president. There is a big sentiment out our way for another term for the president. He would poll a great vote."

"The republicans our way are for the president or for some one who represents his policies," said Gov. Crawford of South Dakota.

Gov. Brooks of Wyoming takes the president at his word. "He will not be a candidate," he says.

Gov. Hoch of Kansas does not hesitate to intimate that the party in his state is "four-flushing" in endorsing Taft. "We are instructed for Taft out there to vote for Roosevelt."

Deneen is openly for Cannon; if Cannon wants it.

From Florida, Gov. Broward says it's all Bryan among the democrats of the south.

Gov. Chamberlain, from Oregon, says his state is for Bryan for the democratic nomination, for Taft for the republican nomination, with Hughes for a second choice, and most of the republicans strong for Roosevelt, although fairly sure that he will not allow himself to enter the race.

Grand Jury's Final Report.

Following is the grand jury's final report so far as allowed published.

No bills found in these U. S. commissioner's cases:

Arthur Butler, introducing and selling.

A. Vogt and Joe Vogt, introducing liquor.

Virgil Ringer, larceny.

Tom Tiner, disposing mortgage property.

True bills found in following U. S. commissioner's cases:

U. S. vs. Alvin Woodworth, larceny.

U. S. vs. B. E. Polk, disposing intoxicating liquor.

U. S. vs. Otis Palmer, disposing intoxicating liquor.

U. S. vs. Fay Riggins, larceny.

Original true bills found:

44 cases for disposing of intoxicating liquor, 19 for introducing, two for nuisance and gaming house, one for gaming, two for weapon, one for fornication, two for false pretenses, two for Sabbath breaking, two for disturbing the peace, one for assault to kill, one for publishing scandalous and obscene libel, one for larceny and knowingly receiving stolen property, one for assault and battery.

The report concludes with: "We have examined the jail and find it in good condition and the prisoners well cared for. We have concluded our labors and ask that we be discharged."

(Signed) J. C. CATES, Foreman.

J. H. McKoy, Clerk.

FOR COURT CHARGES.

Preparations Being Made to Give Affairs to State Officials.

Ardmore, I. T., Oct. 2.—The court officials of the Southern District of Indian Territory are making all arrangements to turn over affairs to state officers as rapidly as possible, and are shortening the terms of the courts by continuing cases. The criminal court for Marietta was held in one day and all cases wherein pleas of not guilty were entered were continued.

"What Fools We Mortals Be!"

From the Cotton Journal.

The speculators in the New York Cotton Exchange, the King Bee of the whole bunch of Exchanges, have gone up against the farmers and business interests of the South during the past thirty days and have planted the banner of low prices in every local spot market in the South. The New York Cotton Exchange has run over the South in the last thirty days like a sixty horse power automobile would go over a hill of ants on the public highways of the country. Not content with ramming low prices down our throats against all the legitimate laws of supply and demand, its members are beginning to abuse the southern state legislatures, and the people generally, for passing laws against the local wire house operators who used to have such a soft snap in the different states. Their contention is, (but the present depression in the price of cotton is due to the inability of the farmers to get quick news from the blackboard figures posted up in the exchanges at New York and Liverpool.

Be it remembered that the south was honeycombed with bucket shops and wire houses in the winter and spring of 1904 and 1905, when spot cotton was depressed to six cents per pound and it was the news from New York and Liverpool sent through those local agencies which did the deadly work. Why didn't the local wire houses in the fall of 1904 give us a ray of life and hope? Why was it that during the past few months, without these agencies and after marketing the three largest crops ever grown in the history of the south, prices were the highest since 1870, except for a short speculative period in the spring of 1903?

The present effort to make it appear that existing low markets are due to antagonistic legislation against gambling in cotton futures in the south won't hold water. The people of the south know the value of spot cotton and the only thing for them to do is to apply the remedy of intelligent selling and by co-operative effort maintain fair values on a stable basis. The speculators want wide margins and an actively fluctuating market.

ket. The south can and will win in this fight whether she gets hourly or daily news from New York or not. Spot cotton is handled in New York neither for marketing purposes or for spinning, hence the New York market is a purely speculative one and can never be of material advantage to the spot market in the south. Speculative cotton exchanges are not a necessity in the legitimate handling of spot cotton, provided business ways and means are adopted by farmers that will regulate the supply of the staple to meet the legitimate demands of manufacturers. If southern people would use their own brains more and depend less on the costly advice of outsiders they would soon solve the problem of how to maintain high prices for the cotton crop and the absolute control of the great monopoly we possess.

Home-Grown Motors.

From the Youth's Companion.

Even a book agent sometimes fails of achievement through unforeseen misunderstandings. "Colonel," said one of them, affably, to a Texan whose record he had looked up beforehand "those are mighty fine boys of yours."

"The finest in the country stranger," said the colonel. "The finest in Texas."

"I reckon you buy them anything they want."

"Why, stranger, I buy them anything they need, whether they want it or not."

"Then, colonel, let me sell you a cyclopeda for them. There's nothing else will do them so much good."

The colonel looked at him in astonishment. "Why, stranger," he said, "them boys of mine don't need any cyclopeda. They ride mules."

will find a halter on the bedpost.

Don't worry about paying your bill; the house is supported by the foundation.—Punch.

The Ideal Hostess.

She must make you feel individually that you are the favored guest.

She must make you feel perfectly at home.

She must see everything and yet possess the art of seeming to see nothing.

She must never look bored.

She must know how to get congenial people together.

She must know how to keep conversation always going.

She must never let any one be slighted or over-looked.

She must know when to ask the amateur musician to display his or her talents and when not to.

She must be perfectly unselfish about her own pleasures.

She must remember that nothing is so tiresome, so surely death to all enjoyment, as the feeling that one is being entertained.—McCall's Magazine.

For more than a week the teacher had been giving lessons on the dog, and so when the inspector came down and chose that very subject there seemed every prospect of the class distinguishing itself on brilliant essays on our canine friend, says the Topeka Journal. Things were progressing quite satisfactorily and the master was congratulating himself on the trouble he had taken, when alas! a question was asked which made him tremble for the reputation of his scholars.

Why does a dog hang his tongue out of his mouth?" asked the inspector.

"Yes, my boy," he said to a bright looking lad who held up his hand, while the light of genius was in his eye.

"Please, sir, it's to balance his tail."

A smart short kimono coat was embroidered across the front and back and on the sleeves with wisteria.

Blonde lace, the favorite lace of the second empire, is much in evidence just now.

In parasols hand-painted and hand embroidered effects are popular.

The butterfly bows are not novel, but they are pretty when made of fine linen, finished with crochet border.

Cowpea Hay.

In the rush of other work do not lose sight of the value of cowpea hay, the best use you can make of the cowpea crop is to save as much seed as possible and to make well-cured hay.

The next best thing is to pasture the cowpeas off with hogs, cattle, sheep and horses. An dthe crop pays well even if you do nothing more with it than let it go down on the ground and plow it under during the winter. But this last method is wasteful.

There is an extra reason for going to some trouble this year to save a big lot of cowpea hay. The oat crop was very short and the wheat crop in some localities has made bran and shorts high in price. These feeds may be entirely replaced by cowpea hay in feeding farm animals. There is a large acreage of cowpeas in Oklahoma this year and wherever given any cultivation, they have done well. If they are made into hay and cared for and farmers generally learn the value of this important crop for feeding purposes, the loss from green bugs will be many times overcome. The lesson will be worth its cost. But don't pay the cost, as you already have done, an dthen miss the lesson.

A Nashville lawyer once had a client noted for his unscrupulous business methods. The client lived in a small town, and bought and sold country produce. If the price of potatoes went up after he had contracted to purchase the crop, he would refuse to take them at the market price. If the price went down, however, he was surer than death to take them at the prevailing market figure. Naturally this policy got him into frequent and bitter litigation.

On one occasion he had become involved in a case based on a deal in potatoes. The man who owned the potatoes brought suit and the case was taken before a local justice. The lawyer concluded the defense along purely technical lines and the case was taken under advisement by the judge.

The client was called away on business in Chattanooga before the justice had rendered his decision, so when the latter brought in a verdict adverse to the plaintiff, the lawyer, in his somewhat unexpected triumph, wired his client:

"Justice has triumphed."

Immediately came back the startling reply:

"Take an appeal!"—Lippincott's.

I have one hundred acres of good improved land for rent, ninety acres of which is prairie land. Good improvements. Situated five miles northwest of Ada.

THE WELCOME AT ST. LOUIS

President Warmly Received at First Stop on River Trip--Drenched in Downpour of Rain.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2.—President Roosevelt in a speech here today, declared it the nation's duty to restore the Mississippi river to its proper place as a great artery of commerce and termed the proposed fourteen foot channel from the lakes to the Gulf a national task.

He warned against plans which might entail reckless extravagance or be tainted with robbery, but urged a liberal waterway policy.

The president's address was not diminished by the fact that he was drenched by a sudden downpour of rain while en route to the Jal Alai building, where his speech was delivered.

A tremendous ovation was accorded the national executive when the steamer Mississippi entered St. Louis harbor to make the first stop on the voyage from Keokuk to Memphis, Tenn., where President Roosevelt will attend the convention of the Deep Waterways Association on Friday. Thousands of persons had gathered on the levees to witness the president's arrival and were held in check by constantly incorporated in one state and operated in another. He instance especially his experience in getting the Southern Pacific Railroad to repair a breach in the Colorado river.

That disaster occurred in California, he said, but do you suppose I found it possible to deal with the railroad there? No. The railroad is a New Jersey corporation and I had to deal with it as such.

He contended that the constitution must be interpreted to fit modern day conditions and not conditions that existed when it was adopted.

It must be construed as an instrument of life and not a symbol of death, he said epigrammatically.

The judges of the courts should always stand against popular clamor but they should also recognize the necessity of a general conservation of the public welfare under present conditions, he asserted. He contended that in taking this position he was fighting the future for the rich too if the rich commit excesses now they in-sons of police and companies of soldiers from Jefferson Barracks. Amid a clamor of shrieking whistles, clanging bells and cheers from the masses assembled the president landed and was greeted by fifteen governors from states bordering the Mississippi river, members of congress and officials representing the city of St. Louis.

Through a sudden heavy downpour of rain the president standing in an open carriage and bowing to the multitudes was driven to the building where he delivered his speech.

Control of Corporations.

The president emphasized his views on the necessity for central control of interstate corporations and he frequently departed from his manuscript to elaborate and make clear his views on that point. His contention was that there must be some sovereign that can control these institutions, especially the railroads.

He spoke at length of the difficulty in reaching the corporations which vite excesses against themselves and their posterity.

Speaking of the improvement of the Mississippi river he warned the advocates of that interest against hastily considered local improvements.

The waterways system must be treated as a whole and the enterprise must not be tainted either with folly or dishonesty.

President Roosevelt was introduced by Gov. Folk of Missouri in a brief speech.

As the president advanced to speak the audience arose cheering and waving flags.

Business Men's League Guest.

At the conclusion of the president's address he and the party of escorts hurried to waiting carriages and were taken at a gallop to the Jefferson hotel, where they were the guests of the St. Louis Business Men's League at luncheon. Covers were laid for more than 400 guests. There were no set (Continued from page one)

STATEHOOD NEAR AT HAND.

No more unforeseen obstruction arise in the much-vexed path of statehood, the forty-sixth star will be emblazoned on the nation's flag before the middle of November.

On October eighth Chief Justice Burford of the Oklahoma supreme court Judge W. H. Clayton senior judge of Indian Territory and Secretary Charles Wilson of Oklahoma will meet at Guthrie as a returning board to canvass the returns from the vote on the constitution.

This work will be largely a formal one in all probability the secretary and his official force will have done the actual work of computation as the returns have come in. Two days should be sufficient to make the canvass and prepare a proper certificate on the result which will be immediately forwarded to President Roosevelt at Washington.

While the president still thinks he would be expected to at once sign the proclamation making Oklahoma a state and on receipt of announcement to this effect, Governor Hester of the territory would immediately take the oath of office and assume the duties of the state.

Since the vote of the territory can not reach Washington for the president's signature on his hunting trip it is possible that statehood may be delayed until he returns to the capital or until a messenger can carry to him the proclamation and secure his signature thereto.

Within not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days after the governor assumes his duties he is required by the constitution to issue a proclamation convening the state legislature. This probably will occur somewhere between the first and the fifteenth of November.

The legislature will convene in Guthrie the temporary capital and will frame a complete code of laws in keeping with and carrying out the provisions of the constitution. Owing to the enormous amount of work they will have to do it is generally believed that the first session of the legislature will last fully six months.

A TROPHY OF THE DOLLAR.

From the Oklahoman.
An Englishman referred to America as being "unconventional but decidedly expressive."

This expressiveness may be realized in the assertion that the dollar of today looks like thirty cents when its purchasing power is compared to that of the dollar of a few years ago.

It was a bit interesting to read recently an editorial published in an Oklahoma daily newspaper of republican politics commending the publisher of a republican weekly newspaper at Hobart Okla. because he had the good sense to increase the price of his publication from $1 to $2 per year reciting that a trust had raised the price of print paper to such a point that there was no longer profit in publishing a weekly newspaper at the annual subscription price of one dollar.

The comment and subject matter indicated that at least two republican brethren have discovered that the dollar of our fathers is shrinking in these latter days of strenuous existence under the republican policy of a protective tariff that is a tax upon the people and of grinding trusts and combinations fostered by that system that is now making the rich richer and the poor poorer at an accelerated rate that is making the most obtuse citizen arise and take notice.

The individual who chances to be long to that class rated as "common people" is also discovering that his opportunities, like the value of the dollar, are depreciating day by day. Being to sleep years ago with that seductive lullaby, "Protect our Infant Industries," he is now awakening to discover that with oceans of prosperity all around him there is scarcely a drop of it for him to drink.

Threatens Writ of Injunction.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 2.—Chairman Hunter of the republican state committee who was here yesterday is authority for the statement that at least one in junction proceeding would be brought against the state board when it sits here next week to canvass the vote cast Sept. 17. Mr. Hunter would not give the origin of the suit or state what was intended to be proved.

He departed last night for Memphis to greet the president on his southern trip. He announced that all abstracts of state constitutional and prohibition votes cast in the recent election are in possession of Secretary Wilson and will be officially rendered Oct. 8.

The abundant down pour this afternoon rained out a lot of the news expected for publication.

C. N. Haskell governor-elect, and who next to the constitution, is declared by Alta Bill Murray to be what the people of Oklahoma want. A column editorial for the Muskogee News State Tribune last week in which he says: "The elections have demonstrated that in a overwhelming majority of the people of the new state are conscientious, honest and moral and demand that the government shall be of the same character. It is a new world which has been born, and the old world is dead. The new world is democratic and the old world is aristocratic."

Normal Transcript (copy). As it is Transcript is concerned it hopes the president can see his way clear to approve the constitution and issue his proclamation admitting the state. Let the tail go with the hide. The people have decided by a very decisive majority that they can live under the constitution and certainly if they can the Transcript can. For the last year or more the territory has been in the throes of a political contest that has demoralized business and retarded the growth and prosperity of the country and we certainly do not want to go through the like again if there is any honorable way of avoiding it.

Albert Sidney Lee whoever he may be wrote from Guthrie a poem for the Oklahoman. The Last Days of the Oklahoman. Here are a few of his (unfamiliar) thoughts from the Cimarron blackjacks.

For the imposed carpet bagger so stern and bold
Held them fast with a deathlike hold,
Till every plan that could be laid
Was watched by them and torn in twain.

But alas the God of liberty the God of the free
Planted a seed that grew the statehood tree.
That has been watered and nurtured
In an anxious throng
Of liberty loving people who have Watched so long.

To see it grow from a tiny sprout
And reach the magnitude where its limbs would spread out
And cover all the fair land with its flower tinted aroma
Known as the territories of Indian and Oklahoma.

BIG SHOW COMING.

Ada, Wednesday, Oct. 16th.—It Will Pay You to Wait for the Only Big Railroad Show Coming This Year.

It is true that the news of a circus coming to town is read and heard with more or less interest by everybody, and when its coming is preceded by reliable information that it is high class clean and that its management fulfills every published promise made the public then that interest is increased. The newspapers all over the state where the Gollmar Bros. Greatest of American shows have exhibited already this season speak in the highest terms of the establishment and say that without question their circus, museum menagerie and hippodrome is the greatest amusement combination in the country today. In the menagerie they show a monster $20,000 black African hippopotamus a monster herd of trained elephants, and 50 tons of rare wild animals. The circus performance they give comprises 100 original novel and picturesque feature acts. The hippodrome shows 200 fine blooded horses and nearly 200 gentlemen and lady actors and their free street parade is a veritable pageant of gold and glory and glitter. They have three great bands a $5000 32 pipe callopie said to be the largest in the world, and give their exhibitions under a spread of water proof canvas which covers acres of ground. The Greatest of American shows exhibit here Oct. 16th. Two performances daily doors open 1 and 7 p. m. See the big free street parade at 10 a. m.

THAT VERY FOUL CONSPIRACY

Hunter and his Co-Conspirators are Playing Their Last Card Against Statehood—Hope to Delay Certification to President Until Congress Convened.

Oklahoma City, Okla. Oct. 3.—Undaunted by the clamorous disapproval of the better element of republicans throughout the state indifferent to the implied suggestion from Roosevelt that it is time to quit playing the baby and seemingly oblivious to the fact that his actions are making him the laughing stock of both territories, Charles Hunter former quarter master sergeant in Teddy's rough riders, who had charge of the chuck wagon ten miles in the rear at San Juan Hill is still blatantly proclaiming that he will contest the recent election on the ground of gross frauds perpetrated by the democrats.

The animus behind these groundless charges of fraud and talk of contest is apparent to all conversant with the situation. Hunter is but the tool of the carpet baggers and the corporals who still hope in some way to be able to nullify statehood. Their present aim is to delay the certifying to the vote until the constitution is rejected in congress in session. This accomplished the statehood assassins will then repeat the enabling act before the state can be proclaimed in order to prevent Oklahoma's seven democratic electoral votes from being used in the selection of the next president.

As an inducement to the Oklahoma republicans and those in the northern portion of Indian Territory to consent to this plan they hold out the promise of another enabling act, immediately passed granting statehood to Oklahoma Territory and what they consider the republican portion of Indian Territory. The democratic portions of Indian Territory would then be erected into a territory as a further bonanza for the carpetbaggers and would be taken into the proposed state by piece meal as the immigration of northern republicans and Texas and Arkansas niggers became sufficient to certainly overcome its democratic vote.

At the meeting of the republican state committee held in Oklahoma City this week this plan was gone through over and over and discussed from every point of view. The few republicans present from the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes just voted vigorously but as the majority of those present at the meeting were federal office holders or representatives of federal corporations like the C. & O. of South Dakota then their vote was of no avail. The holding shift in the conference was with the Bostons. The N. H. M. C. of Oklahoma who was represented by Henri P. Rollins his pliant and plausible hireling.

This is the real plan of the enemies of statehood. It was discussed so far and so forth just as honest men would discuss a legitimate business proposition. The people of both territories who have labored for years for single statehood should break away from party lines and face the condition as good citizens who are mindful of their rights.

NEW STATE NOTES.

From the Oklahoman.

An envious neighbor prints the following Humorous item.—The lid is on at Enid now every Sunday.

El Reno is still unable to telegraph its baby. The last man called in didn't stay long enough to dust off the keys when he had felt the local atmosphere.

The people of Oklahoma hung up the statehood flag so high that even the republican grafters have concluded not to try to haul it down.—Ark. Ex-Rays.

The Darrow Press makes note of one of its citizens who has purchased a steam engine and plow and will put in five hundred acres of wheat this fall.

The beet sugar industry is trying to gain a foothold in the new state with the promise of transferring its headquarters from Colorado to Oklahoma City.—Southwestern Development News.

At Enid the brewery has already been transformed into a cold storage plant. Better and worthier uses will thus be found for the plants all over the new state as prosperity and manhood be enhanced.

A fourteen year old girl of Glencoe who sloped to Pawnee was headed off and taken home. Four more years of schooling won't hurt the young lady, because matrimony is a long school with no diploma at the end.

Bill Murray has tendered the president the use of his celebrated squirrel rifle on his Louisiana hunting expedition. Bill says it will kill a bear every time and can be adjusted to shoot a mile and a half in a circle.

Jerre Johnson of Newkirk newspaper fame declared that he would leave the country if the constitution carried, and some one has cruelly remarked that was the cause of such a big vote for the document over in that section.

The Waukomis Hornet says the cotton output of the United States this year in round dollars was more than the gold output of the world. We can't all have a gold mine but we can all have a patch of cotton which is the next best thing.

Never judge a man by his clothing warns a rural exchange. The man with the ragged suit slouch hat and worn-out shoes may be the editor of your local paper, while the man with the stylish suit and patent leather shoes may simply be one of his delinquent subscribers.

This is the way the Marble City Enterprise editor apologizes for his job. It is the person rather than the occupation that adds dignity to labor. There are those who can beautify the most menial occupation or service and there are others who can degrade the most humble occupation.

W. P. Campbell, custodian of the state historical society, visited a few days this week with the Hornet family. Like all others that come from Oklahoma City he thinks that it is about the best town in the universe. There about thirty-two thousand people down there and they are all of the same opinion.—Waukomis Hornet.

The bloom corn season has opened up in this section to beat the band. Every day sees a lot of brush and it is bringing a good price. In fact it is a good paying crop this season. It just seems that the Beaver county people are in luck this year. The cantaloupe and corn and bloom corn have been excellent and the wheat is very good. Who isn't glad to live in this section.—Guthrie Herald.

Dreaming of the Statehood Hour.

Speaking of signs of the times one of the most obtrusive signs of statehood is the groups of officers elect one observes on the sidewalks dreaming of the hour when the carpetbagger will tremble at their power etc.—to para phrase the famous poem.

In earnest the officials are conferring on their several duties how to start off what kind of deputies to employ and so forth.

It is but proper they should deliberate on these matters for some of these mornings we are going to arise to hear the proclamation of statehood echoing from hill to hill. Then instantly the people's sole dependence for government will be these men who should qualify for office promptly in order that no hiatus occur.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. J. F. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for Constipation.

speeches, but the president responded to the toast of President James E. Smith of the league by expressing the wish that the ends of the league might be achieved. The end of the league just now means the securing of a fourteen-foot river channel.

The party was scheduled to leave the hotel at 2 30 o'clock but the president did not enter his carriage until after 3 o'clock.

Gov. Curry Delays Departure.

Arriving at the wharf it was found that Gov. Curry of New Mexico, who was to travel with the president was not aboard the steamer Mississippi.

A search of half an hour revealed Gov. Curry on the steamer Alton. He was summoned by the president and the Mississippi cast off her moorings shortly after 4 o'clock an hour behind schedule time. She was followed by the U. S. steamer Col. McKenzie carrying the members of the Inland Waterways Commission. The Alton bearing the Governors of fifteen states the Tennessee chartered for thirty-six visiting congressmen sixteen other large steamboats and a host of small craft.

The president intended to go aboard the McKenzie tonight for a conference with the members of the Inland Waterways Commission. Tomorrow the president will deliver a speech at Cairo Ill.

ARMORE COLLEGE BURN.

Young Lady Students and Teachers Have Narrow Escape—$70,000 Loss.

Armored College, Okla. Oct. 3.—The main building of Armored College the Methodist college in this city was destroyed by fire at about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Seventy-five young lady students and ten lady teachers who were rendered homeless barely escaped. The building contents and all of the belongings of the occupants were destroyed.

Miss Cameron Boone, teacher of expression and voice sustained serious injuries by falling down a flight of stairs in endeavoring to escape from the flames.

The building was valued at about $70,000 and was but partially insured. The contents which consisted of room furnishings and school furniture with four or five pianos was valued at about $15,000, on which there was practically no insurance.

The fire originated in the front part of the building on the fourth floor and the roof was ablaze before the alarm was sounded. The origin is supposed to have been from either a defective fuse or bad wiring. The building had recently been repaired for the present session of school, which commenced about the middle of September. The boys' dormitory of the institution was destroyed by fire last spring and the board of directors had just completed arrangements for the construction of a new building.

Congressman-elect Charles D. Carter is a heavy loser by the fire, destroying a considerable quantity of family heirlooms. President Staples of the institution who moved here from Hillsboro Tex. is a heavy loser of books, furniture and personal belongings including a new piano. In all probability the trustees will rebuild as soon as arrangements can be made.

The institution was organized about twelve years ago and is the only educational institution in the new state that is under the control of the Methodist conference of Oklahoma. It was named for Bishop Hargrove of Georgia.

Fine Millinery Display.

(Not published sooner because it got lost in composing room.)

It was a scene of unusual beauty and gaily at Mrs. Alexander's Millinery store Saturday the occasion being her fall opening. The house was profusely decorated with flowers both natural and artificial and beautiful specimens of the latest millinery offerings were everywhere in evidence. Ladies of the town and country thronged the store for hours.

Mrs. Mary Smith and Miss Eula Kaiser were valuable assistants to Mrs. Alexander in exhibiting the stock and entertaining the visitors.

Saloon Men to Pacific Coast.

Guthrie Ok. Oct. 3.—It develops today that many saloon men of Guthrie and other Oklahoma cities will trek to the Pacific coast towns and cities after state-wide prohibition becomes effective. Of the local saloon men the majority are going to Oregon. These include some of the wealthiest citizens of Guthrie.

City on Good Behavior.

The dullness in police court official is almost funereal, compared with last week's docket, congested as it was with drunks and disturbances. Most exemplary appears to be the town's conduct this week Mayor Barton says, it looks as if the city must go into bankruptcy in its criminal business.

Farmers' Union in Session.

The Farmers' Union of Pontotoc county met in regular quarterly session this afternoon at 2 o'clock with considerable important business to transact. The attendance was good, considering this is the very busiest time of the year for farmers of this vicinity. A full account of the proceedings will appear in this paper later.

O. McMinn the new editor of the Pontotoc Chief Leader was here on business today. A consolidation of the two papers of that town has been effected whereby the Chief ceases publication and Mr. McMinn assumes the management of the Chief Leader.

Sincere Thanks.

After a severe spell of typhoid fever I am back again at my post of duty in the undertaking business.

First of all I want to thank my Creator for sparing my life through this trying ordeal, as it is only through Him that we have our being.

Also I want to thank my many friends who so tenderly cared for me and looked after the welfare and comfort of my family. Such friends are very much appreciated.

Again I wish to thank those who so kindly remembered me in a business way during my sickness for I am sure they were treated with courtesy.

Again thanking all who assisted in any way or wished me well, I am sincerely yours,

STATEHOOD THWARTS LOVERS.

Several Divorce Weddings Postponed Because of No Final Court Adjudgment.

There were a goodly number of divorces granted at the recent term of U. S. court in Ada. It develops that at least five of the divorcees were in somewhat of a hurry. At least that number have signified their desire for license to wed again right upon the heels of the court's adjournment Wednesday.

But complications arose from the fact that the court's adjournment was not a final adjournment for the term. For the benefit of lawyers and litigants in these days of transition from a territorial to a statehood status, Judge Dickerson did not adjourn court sine die but adjourned till Oct. 14th, when he will be here again for a day and consider court questions not requiring a jury.

In the meantime many legal controversies apparently decided already, might be reopened. Among those controversies, issues in divorce cases. So fresh divorcees are not safe in marrying until after Judge Dickerson visits Ada early October 14.

This will work a mine hardship on some of the love-lorn, but they still considered that in most jurisdictions a divorce is final from three to six months after a court finally adjourns. They may lawfully wed.

It was a surprise with those who dwelt in the stress of this week's adjournment. One couple had even on so far today is to have all the things seen in a young lady deputy in the U. S. clerk's office—had fully qualified themselves for matrimony—when the eagle-eyed chief Al Constant came in and threw a wet blanket over the nuptials by explaining that no decree of divorce was yet effective.

Those who love each other as hard as they ought to will be still in the notion two weeks hence when probably there will be naught to obstruct Cupid's plans.

About the Harris Hotel.

Sam Harris was here from Shawnee today looking after his property interests. He showed his faith in Ada in an early day by building the Harris hotel block. When asked who will take charge of this hotel as successor to E. F. Parnell, the present lessee who will remove to Sulphur, Mr. Harris said he did not know that no definite arrangements have been made. It has been rumored that he would remove hither from Shawnee and run this popular hostelry himself, but Mr. Harris states he has no such intentions that on the contrary he would prefer to sell the property.

One of Ada's New Merchants.

The Mitchell (Indiana) Commercial has this to say of Harry Chapple who has removed to Ada to become one of our merchants.

Harry Chapple closed out business Friday night, since which time he has been packing up such as he wanted to ship. He will send out a car and expects to have the car ready to send out today. We are sorry Harry is going away for he has been in business here a long while. From small capital he had by hard labor and fair dealing grown into a nice business.

We predict success for him in the west, for a young man of his hustle and business qualifications always wins in a new country. He is a square young business man and we commend him to the people of Ada. I. T. where he is going to locate.
